The specially developed dedusting system guarantees optimal separation efficiency during the whole operation. The advantage of the Power-Spray- System is not only its low maintenance construction without abrasion susceptible rotating jets but also the low dedusting pressure respectively low consumption of compressed air. The dedusted particles are collected in the dust collecting drawer and can be disposed afterwards.

The control contains a subsequent cleaning if the fan stands still.

A stable steel plate construction with continuous powder coating guarantees a low maintenance operation even under rough conditions.

A baffle plate serves as pre-separator for gross particles. The filter cartridge of the filter category BGIA M separates the remaining fumes and dusts (separation efficiency = 99 %). The cartridge is coated ex works with a special filter medium. Thus, the lifetime increases considerably compared to that of standard filter cartridges.

The unit is fitted with a high-capacity fan with high negative pressure that guarantees a high volumetric flow even under rough conditions.

The enormous advantage of this unit is its user-friendly construction with maintenance doors for all control areas and very low consequential costs because the cartridge is dedustable.
